

realtyreport®

Article Summary - Condo Version (US) Volume 6, Issue 4 (April 2010)

PAGE 1

Closing the Deal

A real estate transaction can be a complex process. Closing costs alone can be a source of confusion for many homebuyers. Luckily, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act – the law that protects consumers by requiring lenders to give borrowers advance notice of all the costs involved in closing their property transaction – was revised at the beginning of 2010 to make it easier for consumers to understand.

PAGE 2

Buy Design

Maybe you don't have the time or know-how to do it yourself. Or perhaps you and your significant other simply can't reconcile your disparate tastes. Whatever your reason is for hiring a professional interior designer to decorate your home, here's some advice to help make the experience a success.

PAGE 3

Best Person for the Job

No one knows your home better than you, right? But who's the best person to determine what you should list your home it for, to sell it in a reasonable time period? A real estate sales representative, that's who!

Get the Edge

Spring is peak home-buying time. You might be in the market for a new home this season – but so are a lot of other people. To get a jump on your competition, here are a few things you can do before beginning the home-hunting process.

PAGE 4

Condo Composting

Whether you're a condo dweller with a green thumb or one who's concerned about the environment, you'll be pleased to know you can compost when living in a condominium.

Terminology Tip: Assumable Mortgage

HOMEMAKER OPTION

Featured Recipe: Replace article on page 4 with this issue's featured recipe for Farfalle Primavera.

Tel: 1-800-387-6058
Fax: 1-800-800-7093
Email: rriquiries@marketconnections.com
Web: www.realtyreport.org